

Eastern Star Olympics

(escorts will act as assistants and timers)

Welcome to the Eastern Star Olympics! Today's featured competitions involve the Officers of XXXXX versus the Officers of YYYYY! Oh, you didn't know you were competing? No wonder you are not dressed appropriately! Oh well, too bad! We will arrange things so that you can participate in spite of your inappropriate attire. Would the 2 teams please line up along the opposite side lines, XXXXXXXX over here and YYYYYY over there. Each team is being handed a list of events which participants will need to sign up for. The number of participants needed is indicated for each event. We are featuring three events today.

- (1) The 50 meter dash
- (2) Soccer (this is a men-only event)
- (3) The Broad Jump (get your minds out of the gutter all you men!)

50 METER DASH

Please decide quickly who will be participating in the first event. We will need 8 participants from each team.

Oh my! I see that I have made a mistake! This isn't a 50 meter DASH, it's a 50 M&M spoon feeding!!! I hope you have some of the biggest mouths on your team. Pair up with another member of your team. One of you will do the spoon feeding the other the eating! The goal here is to spoon 50 M&Ms into your partner's mouth in as little time as possible, without spilling any! Of course, the one being fed is expected to holler out when you have all the M&Ms in the mouth. Are you ready? Timers ready? GO!

SOCCKER

Next is the soccer event. We need all of the gentlemen Officers (use escorts if more people needed) for this event. Please remove your shoes and sit on the floor. If you need help getting up later, we'll bring in the hoist.

Assistants, please hand out the first part of the equipment (hand out oven mitts). Put on the mitts. Assistants, please hand out the rest of the equipment. As you can see, the object of this event is to put on the socks as quickly as you can WITHOUT removing the oven mitts. No cheating!! (NOTE: if we have enough stop watches, will do more than 4 people at a time, otherwise, we will run the event twice.)
Are you ready? Timers ready? GO!

BROAD JUMP

OK, everyone else who has not yet participated in an event WILL participate in this one. We want to make sure that you ALL have had a GOOD time, so we are going to measure that VERY scientifically.

Everyone will line up right down here at the base of the dais. I want all the WWWWWW competitors to line up on this side, the YYYYYYY competitors over here. Are you ready to have a good time? I want to see your biggest, best smile, because we are going to measure exactly how wide it really is. Are you ready? Are the tape measurers ready? OK, SMILE!!

To commemorate this hysterical, I mean historical, event, and to celebrate the victory of the (what team won) team. Members of the (host) team will serenade you with this song. Fortunately, singing is not an Olympic event or we would be in BIG trouble.

SONGS – Organist plays a few songs that everyone knows (Bible Built for Two, etc.)
