A Service to our Sideliners

WM.

There are people who have a way of giving us a lift,
They seem to live as though each day was a very special gift
They always appear to be, the ones who really care,
About the needs of others, and all the dreams they share.
They have that sort of kindness that has an endless flow,
They're very special people and so very nice to know.

My sincere and deep appreciation to all those who made tonight beautiful

WM.

Gratitude is the hardest of all emotions to express. There are no words capable of conveying all that one feels to those of our order who gather in the shadows and seldom get the praise they deserve. So tonight, in gratitude, we pay tribute the members represented by those who form the circle around our star. To those Sisters and Brothers who give freely their loyalty and service that we cannot do without and always seems to be so much a part of our Chapter.

Tonight, we say "thank you".

When I give two knocks with the gavel, the Office-bearers only will stand.

WP.

I would ask all Officer-bearers to accord to our Sideliners a hearty vote of thanks, resume order and be seated at the sound of the gavel.

Sing what a Wonderful World.
