

Turkey Hunt (use pictures of turkeys downloaded from web, or turkey stickers or candy)

Inside the chapter room:

I get pounded a lot to keep order at the meetings

I hold the treat for your “sunshine”

If you want a new member, you need me

The items I contain are the same colors as a zebra

I am the emblem of the chaplain

I hold the guard for the inner door

I hold the guard for the outer door

I hold the flag of our country

The candidates hold me during initiation

I am the emblem of Martha

I am the emblem of Ruth

I am the emblem of Electa

The marshal needs me to help prompt the opening

Alpha chapters organist “doesn’t” need me

Members wear me to show their station

I hold Esther’s emblem

I am draped over part of Adah’s emblem

I hold the officer who holds the money

You need me to sing the opening and closing ode

Visitors sign in with me

I must always be in the room

Downstairs:

My name means “mini water that laps at shore”

180 degrees is a full circle, I usually run at almost twice the degrees

What I hold is hot and black

I keep your food cold

Brrr, you’d have to be an Eskimo to like it here

You wipe your mouth with me

I hold your food

I am Electa’s emblem

I am black, and I am white, and some people can’t eat without me

If it’s cold or wet, you need me and I’ll “hang around” and wait

I hold the trash

What I hold will make you even sweeter

This is the dairy state and I “pour” it out

Don’t you dare call me a “drip”

I am the downstairs East

I am John’s emblem

I am Helen’s emblem

My name is the same as a path that turns in two directions

You use me to eat soup

I can spread or cut

Use me to wash your hands
