

Where else

Where else are we able to say the Pledge of Allegiance to our great nation's flag?

Where else are we able to sing the Star Spangled Banner each and every time we meet?

Where else does the Holy Bible rest upon an altar we hold so sacred?

Where else is the Holy Bible opened with such reverent attitude?

Where else is a meeting opened and closed with prayer?

Where else are you sitting by the open word of God?

Where else do we have five heroines from the bible in our midst?

Where else do we find Adah who surrendered her life to preserve her father's name?

Where else do we find Ruth who felt it her duty to care for her aging mother-in-law Naomi?

Where else do we find Esther a Jewish damsel willing to risk life itself to save her people from death?

Where else do we find Martha putting her trust in Jesus our Savior?

Where else do we find Electa, a lady of great charity and hospitality?

Where else are we of different faiths able to call each other Sister and Brother?

Where else do you find charity, harmony, hospitality, love, kindness, thoughtfulness?

Where else? Of course, Eastern Star
